

Music Director, full-time

First Presbyterian Church in Goldsboro, NC has an opening for a full-time Music Director. Competitive salary and benefits package. This individual will develop and lead the worship music ministry for the church, in consultation with the Pastor, building it in a way that is consistent with our church's mission, values and theology. First Presbyterian Church (PCUSA) is a welcoming and inclusive congregation with a long tradition of fine organ, choral, handbell and children's music. We have a three manual Goulding and Wood pipe organ and a grand piano in the sanctuary. Services are generally traditional. We have one service on Sunday mornings. See the full job description and learn more about our church at www.fpcgoldsboro.org.

General Responsibilities:

1. Plan, organize, coordinate and conduct the music program of the church to bring glory to God.
2. Recruit, organize and conduct choirs and instrumental groups.
3. Select, prepare and perform appropriate service music including prelude, postlude, choir music and hymns.
4. Play for special services such as Christmas Eve and Maundy Thursday.
5. Provide music for weddings and funerals for additional compensation.
6. Direct musical programming for congregational events.
7. Meet regularly with Pastor in planning and coordinating the music for all worship services.
8. Oversee the maintenance and servicing of the church's musical instruments.
9. Select and purchase music that will become part of the church music library. Maintain music library.
10. Attend monthly meeting of Worship Committee.
11. Coordinate and plan special music services and programs; recruit performers, schedule rehearsals, procure materials.

Bachelor's Degree in music and experience in directing a church music program and playing organ and piano for a congregation preferred, or equivalent combination of education and experience.

Please reply to 1stPresGold@gmail.com.

Equal Opportunity Employer