“Then King David went in and sat before the Lord and said: Who I am, Lord God, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far?” 1 Chronicles 17:16

Dear friends of First Presbyterian Church Goldsboro, NC,

Summer is a time of joy: Some go to the beach, some go to mountains, some go on international trips. In the case of our congregation, 8 of us are heading to Chiapas, Mexico from May 31st to June 7th. We will be helping with some construction work in small Presbyterian churches and organizing a mini-vacation Bible School. Many of my happiest memories of my short 47 years of life are being part of mission trips.

Some years ago, we were part of a mission trip from Highland Presbyterian Church in Lancaster, PA to El Salvador. We supported a small Christian school in San Salvador. We commuted every day for 40 minutes from the place we stayed to the small school. Every time the kids saw the bus arriving, the children came running with joyful noise and big hugs. One day, the teachers took us on a field trip to see a dormant volcano. The volcano was fun, but what I remember the most is how much we laughed on the bus. I picture heaven with a mission group traveling through the pearly gates laughing all the way. The group going to Chiapas is the same way. The people we travel with and the people we work with are so appreciative and so joyful. And of course, seeing little kids playing with a new soccer ball is so much fun!

Okay, so I picture heaven, traveling in the pearly gates and stopping to play soccer with little kids. “Who are we, Lord, that you have brought us this far?”. May your travels and summer journey be safe and fun! Matthew Moore has shared a beautiful poem on his Facebook and made me think of fun summer travels. Enjoy:

The Road Not Taken

Robert Frost

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Sincerely, in Christ,
Pastor Noè Juarez

5th Sunday Missions Offering -

Our next 5th Sunday Missions Offering is June 29. This offering will be designated for Wayne Uplift Resource Association, Inc. (WURA). Wayne Uplift is a non-profit organization that has worked collaboratively with community partners since its inception in 1991 serving families in Wayne County. WURA successfully operated two Family Resource Centers in Wayne County for sixteen years providing family support services to meet the needs of families in the most critical need areas of Wayne County. In 2007, at the request of combined community efforts, Wayne Uplift Resource Association, Inc. became the domestic violence and sexual assault service provider for Wayne County. The mission of Wayne Uplift is to offer domestic violence, sexual assault, rape crisis and domestic violence intervention services that promote safe, healthy families and communities.

Please consider contributing to this local mission opportunity. You may use the bright blue envelopes in the backs of the pews to contribute to this offering between now and June 29. It's as easy as placing your offering in the envelope, sealing it and putting it in the offering plate. There are only 2 things you need to remember...First, if you are writing a check please state "5th Sunday Missions" on the memo line. And remember that if you don't use the envelope or write "5th Sunday Missions" on your check that the contribution will not be counted for the Missions Offering. Thank you for your contributions to this local mission that is providing a much needed service in our community!
